NEW YORK TIMES 26 MAY 1976

Paper in Moscow Links 3 U.S.Correspondents to the C.I.A.

iya Gazeta, in its issue for they contained.

ny connection with the C.I.A.,' ne spokesman said.

[In Washington, the Centrai Intelligence Agency said that pending study of the full Soviet article, it would stand by the statement by the embassy spokesman in Moscow that he knew of no American journalist in the Soviet capital with any C.I.A. connections, United Press International reported. Much of the article, two full olumns on page 9, quoted exensively from the American ress about the alleged involve-

Of the three newsmen in loscow, it said:

No Details on 'Letters'

Their loyalty to the C.I.A. is telligence Agency. arprisingly combined with "It's ridiculous," saleir commitment to the free spokesman for the A.P. ress.

The literary publication said had received letters from spokesman for Newsweek said, worked for two years as a coraders in Moscow, Tbilisi and In a statement, The New respondent in Los Angeles and eaders in Moscow, Tbilisi and allinn "confirming this."
"These letters conc

MOSCOW, May 25 (UPI)— It gave no indication of who member or employee of The U.S.S.R., alleged today that New York Times was used one of The New York Times

entral Intelligence Agency. | correspondents in certain infor-ployees were involved in C.I.A.

"We certainly know of no immediately offer any explanamen and making them "suspendents in this town who has tion for it. The three correctible to any unsubstantiated spondents are competent in the charges that anyone might wish Russian language and have to bring against them."

worked in the Soviet Union for Neither Mr. Krimsky nor Mr. two years or more.

often made accusations in the from The Times Moscow bupast against American and oth-reau, said that the charges were er foreign reporters accredited "totally fabricated." in Moscow, this was the first time in recent memory that having them present me with the Russians have alleged any the evidence," Mr. Wren said. link between a correspondent and the Central Intelligence Agency.

Allegations Strongly Denied

ent of some newsmen with week and The New York Times metropolitan staff in New York each denied charges yesterday for a year. He came to The by the Soviet weekly Litera-New York Times from Newsturnaya Gazetta that their week Magazine, where he was Moscow correspondents were a general editor, and before associated with the Central In-that he worked at Look maga-

"It's ridiculous,"

"Newsweek correspondents Mr. Krimsky joined the Aswork for Newsweek only," a sociated Press in 1969. He York Times Company said that then on the world service desk "These letters concretely "The Times emphatically denies in New York He was transtand convincingly described the charge." The statement said ferred to the A.P. Moscow that The Times had received bureau in 1974. He is married assurances in the past from and has one child. George Bush, Director of Cen- Mr. Friendly worked for the Latelliance that the staff bureau in 1984.

operationally by the C.I.A. The omorrow, suggested that three merican news correspondents said, "the letters spoke about from Mr. Bush that no Times corrected in Moscow were asticled with the United States the heightened interest of these employees or part-time employees."

The correspondents were mation and objects that evidently exceeded the framework ew York Times, George Krimgy of The Associated Press and Alfred Friendly, Jr. of ewsweek.

Literature and Correspondents in certain intorphoyees were involved in C.I.A. to mation and objects that evidently exceeded the framework assurances were not forthcomplist would consider filing suit to compel the C.I.A. to fessional conscience about make the information known. fessional conscience" about the information known.
Literaturnaya Gazeta, the journalistic ideals and alleged:
They receive their payments lisher of The New York Times, said that the present C.I.A. to fessional conscience" about the information known.
Arthur Ochs Sulzberger, publisher of The New York Times, said that the present C.I.A. to fessional conscience" about the information known.
Arthur Ochs Sulzberger, publisher of The New York Times, said that the present C.I.A. to fessional conscience" about the information known.
Arthur Ochs Sulzberger, publisher of The New York Times, said that the present C.I.A. to fessional conscience" about the information known.
Arthur Ochs Sulzberger, publisher of The New York Times, said that the present C.I.A. to fessional conscience about the information known.
Arthur Ochs Sulzberger, publisher of The New York Times, said that the present C.I.A. to fessional conscience about the information known.
Arthur Ochs Sulzberger, publisher of The New York Times, said that the present C.I.A. to fessional conscience about the information known.
Arthur Ochs Sulzberger, publisher of The New York Times, said that the present C.I.A. to fessional conscience about the information known.
Arthur Ochs Sulzberger, publisher of The New York Times, said that the present C.I.A. to fessional conscience about the information known.

vo years or more. Friendly could be reached for Although the Russians have comment. Mr. Wren, speaking

"I am looking forward to

Wren in Moscow 3 Years

Mr. Wren became Moscow bureau chief in December 1974 after a year as a Times correspondent in the Soviet Union. The Associated Press, News-Before that he worked on the zine. A graduate of Dartmouth said a College, he lives in Moscow with his wife and two children.

respondent in Los Angeles and George Bush, Director of Central Intelligence, that no staff Newsweek in Chicago and Rome from 1962 to 1965. He then joined The New York Times and worked in Indonesia, Nigeria, Italy and Yugoslavia. In 1972 he became counsel to the Senate subcommittee on intergovernmental relations. Two years later, he rejoined Newsweek as Moscow bureau chief. He is married with two sons,

STATEMENT BY TIMES

The following statement was issued yesterday by The New York Times Company: The Soviet Literary Gazette, an official organ of the correspondents in Moscow, Christopher Wren, was associated with the Central Intelligence Agency. Times emphatically denies the charge, and Mr. Wren, reached in Moscow, said, "The charges are totally fabricated. I never worked for the C.I.A.".

The bases of The Times's denial are Mr. Wren's ownstatement and two letters from George Bush, Director of the C.I.A., in response to queries directed to the agency by A. M. Rosenthal, managing editor, and Arthur Ochs Sulzberger, chairman and president of the company and publisher of the newspaper.

These letters were dated Feb. 3, 1976, and Feb. 9, 1976.

In the Feb. 3 letter, Mr. Bush reported that "no staff member or employee of The New York Times is used operationally by the C.I.A.' A similar assurance to Mr. Sulzberger was made in the Feb. 9 letter in response to a request by The New York Times under the Freedom of Information Act. The Times was seeking to know if any of its employees or stringers had acted, knowingly or unknowingly, as United States intelligence agents or as in-formants for the United States intelligence commu-

sontinued

STAT